Movie Reviews Instructions Choose a movie to review that has a strong life coaching theme in it. Your review requires you to interact with the content of the movie in a way that allows for an understanding of the impact that movies can have on the coaching process. Each movie review must be at least 2–3 pages and contain properly APA-formatted citations, references, and a title page. Use the following format in completing your movie reviews: The ReviewGive your impression of the movie with a brief description of the plot summary. Resist the urge to retell the whole plot of the movie; instead, share the scenes that had the greatest impact on your thinking as a life coach. Coaching ImplicationsWhat makes this film appropriate for use in a coaching conversation? How would a client benefit from watching these scenes in the film? What is your rationale for choosing each scene? Personal/Professional Implications How did you connect with the movie on a personal and professional level? How did it confirm or challenge some of your perceptions of the coaching process? Were there any scenes that displayed poor coaching techniques and behavior? How will you utilize this information personally or professionally to impact your delivery of coaching services? Attachments movie_reviews_grading_rubric2.doc Question Field #Social Science
